Pursuant to Ontario Regulation 392/93 - Adequate and Effective Policing it is the policy of the Belleville Police Service Board with respect to police action at labour disputes that:

1. The role of the police at a labour dispute is to preserve the peace, prevent offences, and enforce the law including offences against persons and property, in accordance with the powers and discretion available to a Police Officer under the law; and
2. The Chief of Police will establish and maintain written procedures, in consultation with the Ontario Provincial Police and other agencies that may be providing the services of the Public Order Unit, that are consistent with section 8 of the Ontario Regulation 392/93 - Adequate and Effective Policing, and;
 - a) The role of the Police at a labour dispute;
 - b) Providing information to management, labour, and the public on police procedures during a labour dispute; and
 - c) Secondary activities under section 89 (1) of the Community Safety & Policing Act.
